

Part 1 – Agency Profile

Agency Overview

The Idaho Council on Economic Education (ICEE or “The Council”) is a 501 c 3 non-profit organization hosted by Boise State University. Since 1972 the Council and its Centers have provided materials, workshops and training in economic and financial literacy education to thousands of teachers and students throughout the entire state. The Council operates Centers for Economic Education at University of Idaho, Boise State University, College of Southern Idaho and Idaho State University.

The Council and its Centers provide K-12 school teachers and Idaho students with a multitude of educational programs in economics and personal finance to help them become better citizens, better decision makers and better eventual leaders in tomorrow’s global economy. All of the Council’s programs are directly correlated to and in support of Idaho’s Educational Achievement Standards.

One of the Council’s most popular programs is called the “International Economic Summit”. It was started at Borah High School, further developed by the Council, implemented in many high schools in Idaho and is now in demand by other states across the United States. It is a great example of “Invented in Idaho” and is becoming a major Idaho contribution to the rest of the United States. The Council sponsors and conducts 12 of these events annually throughout the state. Approximately 5,000 Idaho seniors participate in this program.

The Council also provides other programs to Idaho teachers and students including:

- The Stock Market Game
- Hands on Banking
- The Classroom Mini Economy
- Ethics in Economics
- Financial Fitness for Life
- Training for High School Economics Teachers
- AP Economics
- Middle School Economics
- Economics in Children’s Literature
- Mathematics and Economics

Core Functions/Idaho Code

The core functions of the Idaho Council on Economic Education are to:

- Train K-12 school teachers in economics, business, personal finance and entrepreneurship so they are better prepared to take these important principles to their students. These activities directly support the Idaho State Educational Achievements Standards.
- Administer and manage a variety of educational programs including the International Economic Summit, the Stock Market Game and others.
- Involve business, banking, government and other community leaders in economic education in a way that both provides Idaho students with quality learning experiences and also helps adults sharpen their understanding and skills.
